CHATEAU LARRIVET HAUT BRION, 2013

GHC928

Beautiful pale yellow colour with golden highlights. Subtle bouquet featuring mandarin orange, lemon and pineapple aromas with hints of oak and vanilla. Full-bodied, rich, very elegant, and well-balanced on the palate, with well-integrated oak on the aftertaste.

CHATEAU LATOUR MARTILLAC, 2011

GHC880

Pale yellow in color, with vanilla, lemon, melon and stone notes, medium bodied, lushly textured, ends with fresh, plush, citrus finish. Zippy on the palate, the wine refreshes the senses

CHATEAU PAPE CLEMENT, 2012

GHC2680

Earth, truffle, tobacco and smoke work perfectly with the lush, sweet, ripe blackberries and espresso character that this soft, plush wine serves up in spades. There is good freshness and character to the fruit from start to finish. The wine was produced from a blend of 51% Cabernet Sauvignon, 46% Merlot, 2% Petit Verdot and 1% Cabernet Franc.

CHATEAU BELLEGRAVE, 2010 GHC980

CHATEAU GAZIN, 2011 GHC1580

Château Gazin is a Bordeaux wine from the appellation Pomerol. The winery is located on the Right Bank of the Bordeaux wine region.

Medium bodied, and offering dark cherry, plum, coffee and black raspberry notes, this soft, refined and successful for the vintage wine finishes with dark plum, cocoa and earthy notes. The wine was made from a blend of 90% Merlot, 90% Cabernet Sauvignon and 5% Cabernet Franc.

PETRUS,1980 GHC31800

Petrus is a Bordeaux wine estate located in the Pomerol appellation near its eastern border to Saint-Émilion. The wine was deep ruby red, medium to heavy bodied, with black cherry aromas, rich black cherry and chocolate flavor, very smooth and well balanced.

PETRUS, 2004 GHC46800

The dark plum/ruby-tinged 2004 Petrus possesses high acidity as well as copious amounts of sweet cherries and black currants intermixed with hints of cola, earth, and truffles. Deep, medium-bodied, concentrated, ripe flavors are excruciatingly firm and tannic. This backward, structured, muscular Pomerol requires a decade of cellaring, but it possesses the potential to be the longest lived wine of the vintage, lasting 30-40 years.

PETRUS, 2011 GHC58000

CHATEAU LA FLEUR PETRUS, 2010 GHC5280

CHATEAU LA FLEUR PETRUS, 2011 GHC3380

Château La Fleur-Pétrus, sometimes Château Lafleur-Pétrus, is a Bordeaux wine from the appellation Pomerol. Situated across the road from Château Pétrus adjacent to Château Lafleur, the vineyard lies on the northeastern edge of the high plateau of Pomerol where the soil's particular feature is large gravel, with no clay or sand.

CHATEAU TROTANOY, 1990 GHC5800

Earthy, fungal on opening. Developed to warm leather, oak and warm plums. On the pallet rich with classic merlot /cabernet notes with mineral right bank tones. Black fruit, plums, the predominant fruits.

CHATEAU ANGELUS, 2011 GHC5680

*Château Angélu*s, until 1990 known as Château L'Angélus, or simply L'Angélus, is a Bordeaux wine from the appellation Saint-Émilion, since 2012 ranked Premier grand cru classé (A) in the Classification of Saint-Émilion wine.

CHATEAU ANGELUS, 2012 GHC8800

CHATEAU CHEVAL BLANC, 2009 GHC21800

Produced from 60% Merlot and 40% Cabernet Franc, the wine explodes with the intense aromas of jammy black raspberries, flowers, spice, and incense. Powerful, ripe, sweet, velvet textured, and perfectly balanced, this opulent, deep wine finishes with endless waves of spicy berries.

CHATEAU CHEVAL BLANC, 2012 GHC9300

A beautiful wine that always seems to drink well, the 2012 Cheval Blanc has a sweet, fragrant nose of black and red currants, floral nuances and spice. Supple, round and juicy, this wine can be drunk now or cellared for another 15 or more years.

ST. EMILLION GRAND CRU PETIT CHEVAL, 2007 GHC3280

CHATEAU MARGAUX, 1994 GHC10800

Deep-to-opaque garnet in color, this Margaux has a beautiful nose of black fruit, tobacco, saddle leather and allspice. On the palate, it is a firmly tannic, tartly acidic, seamlessly alcoholic (12.5%), very "structured" Bordeaux. Solid in the middle, it finishes long and with substantial tannic grip.

CHATEAU MARGAUX, 2002 GHC8800

CHATEAU MARGAUX, 2004 GHC9800

PAVILLON ROUGE DU CHATEAU MARGAUX, 2009 GHC3280

The production of a second wine under the name of "Chateau Margaux 2nd wine." The quality of Pavillon Rouge has become very close to that of the first wine because all the plots involved contributed to the blending of Chateau Margaux not so long ago.

PAVILLON ROUGE DU CHATEAU MARGAUX, 2011 GHC2980

CHATEAU BEYCHEVELLE, 2012 GHC1680

GHC1480

CHATEAU LAFITE ROTHSCHILD, 1980

GHC16800

Château Lafite Rothschild is a wine estate in France, owned by members of the Rothschild family since the 19th century. Lafite was one of four wine-producing Châteaux of Bordeaux originally awarded First Growth status in the 1855 Classification.

CHATEAU LAFITE ROTHSCHILD, 1992

GHC21800

Beautiful red fruit and cassis that's 1/2 tertiary; light leather and a touch spicy; super silky, amazing concentration but very light on its feet; great mixture of subtle mineral and tobacco; sour cherry finish, tingly, amazing long finish; Complex, lovely and special.

All prices above include VAT & Tourism Levy

CHATEAU LAFITE ROTHSCHILD, 2000 GHC46800

Subtle aromas of currants, leather, tobacco and cedar. Classic cigar box nose, with fruit. Full-bodied, with an amazing texture of silky, ripe tannins. This wine completely coats your palate, but caresses it at the same time. This is the best young Lafite ever made. A triumph.

CHATEAU LAFITE ROTHSCHILD, 2004 GHC14800

Really nice nose of red currant, charcoal, dark roast coffee, cigar box and some slightly earthy undertones. Tart red fruit flavors on the palate with a bit of the coffee coming through along with medium acid, fine tannins with a very smooth mouth feel and a nice finish.

CARRUADES DE LAFITE, 2009 GHC4680

Château Lafite Rothschild's second wine, Carruades de Lafite presents similar characteristics to the Grand Vin, but with its own personality linked to a higher proportion of Merlot and to specific plots that are used to produce Carruades.

CARRUADES DE LAFITE, 2010 GHC4480

CARRUADES DE LAFITE, 2012 GHC4280

CHATEAU DUHART MILON, 2010 GHC2180

CHATEAU DUHART MILON, 2011 GHC1780

Cassis, cedar, sweet spice on the nose, with agitation cream, more cedar, most sweet spice more cassis. All are lifted with a slight red plum character joining. There is a certain generosity to the fruit component and the tannins are slight course with the fruit persisting beneath on the long finish where it is joined by biscuit and cream notes.

CHATEAU LATOUR, 1992 GHC9800

CHATEAU LATOUR, 2008 GHC17800

Soft, silky tannins that convey a sort of creaminess in the wine, resulting in a lush, opulent mouthfeel. Ripe black fruit notes dominate the palate, with great purity of flavor. No noticeable oak at this stage. Very long finish.

LES FORTS DE LATOUR, 2011

GHC3480

The production of a second wine under the name of "Chateau Latour 2nd wine." This deeply colored, earth, oak, cassis and tobacco scented wine offers concentration, freshness, blackberry and chocolate flavors in the finish. This wine shares a family resemblance with its big brother, Chateau Latour.

CHATEAU LYNCH BAGES, 2010

GHC3280

Château Lynch-Bages is a winery in the Pauillac appellation of the Bordeaux region of France. The wine produced here was classified as one of eighteen Cinquièmes Crus (Fifth Growths).

Nose is partially closed. Blackcurrant, cherries, blueberries, roasted coffee, cigar box, green olives and pencil shavings-pretty much Pauillac. Full bodied with loads of acid and tannin. A masculine wine.

CHATEAU LYNCH BAGES, 2011

GHC1980

CHATEAU MOUTON ROTHSCHILD, 1998

GHC9800

Château Mouton Rothschild is a wine estate located in the village of Pauillac in the Médoc, Bordeaux, France. Château Mouton Rothschild has its vineyards on the slopes leading down to the Gironde Estuary, in the Bordeaux region, mainly producing grapes of the Cabernet Sauvignon variety.

CHATEAU PICHON LONGUEVILLE BARON, 2001 GHC2800

Solid dark color. Enchanting nose of smoky black fruits, tobacco and graphite minerals. The palate is quite full and rich with the classic flavors of this wine - dark black currants, smoky gravel and tobacco. In mid-age and will definitely keep improving but the intense complexity that PB can develop on the finish is already apparent.

CHATEAU PICHON LONGUEVILLE COMTESSE DE LALANDE 750ML, 2010 GHC2380

Château Pichon Longueville Comtesse de Lalande (commonly referred to as Pichon Lalande or Pichon Comtesse) is a winery in the Pauillac appellation of the Bordeaux region of France. ITALY RED WINE

SASSICAIA, 2009

GHC3600

Tenuta San Guido is an Italian wine producer in the DOC Bolgheri in Toscana, known as a producer of "Super Tuscan" wine. Its wine Sassicaia is considered one of Italy's leading Bordeaux-style red wines.

Sassicaia is a wine famous for its elegance, vibrancy, and rich bouquet, and it's renowned for its sweet frutti di bosco and pointed cypress and herbs, elements it holds in a temptingly firm tannic grip.

SASSICAIA, 2010

GHC3600

Savoury flavours of tilled earth, sweet spice and dense blackberry and cassis fruit. Very fresh and perfumed, but with real substance beneath. Excellent acidity and tannins throughout.

AMERICA RED WINE

OPUS ONE, 2009

GHC6680

Opus One Winery is a winery in Oakville, California, USA -- a single Bordeaux style blend based upon Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon.

Initial aromas of rose petals and spring flowers in the 2009 Opus One (a blend of 81% cabernet Sauvignon, 9% Cabernet Franc, 5% Petit Verdot, 4% Merlot and 1% Malbec) give way to cassis, cola and black cherry, with notes of marzipan and sandalwood. A satin texture enrobes the wine's smooth, round tannins, its bright acidity supporting a juicy and elegant mouthfeel.

CHAMPAGNE, FRANCE

CRISTAL LOUIS ROEDERER, 2006

GHC3600

It was created in 1876 to satisfy the demanding tastes of Tsar Alexander II. Produced uniquely during the best years, when the Chardonnay (around 40%) and Pinot noir (around 60%) grapes have attained perfect maturity. Cristal is a remarkably balanced and refined champagne whose length is inimitable. It has a silky texture and fruity aromas, complemented by a powerful mineral quality with white fruit and citrus notes. Cristal is a wine that keeps well: it can be conserved for over twenty years without losing its freshness and character.

LAURENT PERRIER BRUT

GHC680

It was during the 1950s that Laurent-Perrier, a trail-blazer in this respect, decided to install stainless steel tanks for its wines. When the first fermentation is carried out at low temperature, stainless steel tanks help the must to retain its freshness and preserve the complexity of its aromas. The tanks were a major contributor in forging the House style. Pioneering Laurent-Perrier Brut became a genuine champagne for the aperitif.

With its composition marked by a high percentage of Chardonnay, Laurent-Perrier Brut is the signature House style, offering freshness, lightness and elegance.

ARMAND DE BRIGNAC BRUT GOLD

GHC4680

Armand de Brignac, colloquially "Ace of Spades" after the logo, is the name of a Champagne brand produced by Champagne Cattier, and sold in opaque metallic bottles. The brand's first bottling, Armand de Brignac Brut Gold, is identifiable by its gold bottle with pewter Ace of Spades labels. The brand was introduced in late 2006 by Sovereign Brands in partnership with Cattier.

Armand de Brignac is marvelously complex and full-bodied, with a bouquet that is both fresh and lively. Its sumptuous, racy fruit character is perfectly integrated with the wine's subtle brioche accents. Its texture is deliciously creamy and the palate has great depth and impact with a long and silky finish. A superb and singular example of a Prestige Champagne.
